

Health Foundation patient safety projects in 2015

This map shows the patient safety projects that the Health Foundation has supported in 2015.

For more details about the full range of the Foundation's past and present work on patient safety, please visit: www.health.org.uk/theme/patient-safety

See also the report Continuous improvement of patient safety: www.health.org.uk/publication/continuous-improvement-patient-safety

1	Improving organisational surveillance of safety Haelo hosted by Salford Royal NHS Foundation Trust	8	Improving outcomes after emergency laparotomy Royal Surrey County Hospital NHS Foundation Trust	18	Improving safety in pharmacy in primary care setting led by Healthcare Improvement Scotland
2	Improving safety during transitions and handovers of care Bradford District Care Trust project, in partnership with the Yorkshire and Humber Improvement Academy	9	Reducing violence on inpatient psychiatric wards led by South London and Maudsley NHS Foundation Trust	19	Improving safety for older people in care homes led by Essex County Council
3	Measuring and monitoring safety across organisational levels Bradford Teaching Hospitals NHS Foundation Trust project, in partnership with the Yorkshire and Humber Improvement Academy	10	Scaling up patient safety huddles in hospital wards led by Leeds Teaching Hospitals NHS Trust	20	Reducing hazards for young people moving to adult services led by Advancing Quality Alliance
4	Predicting and preventing incidents of self-harm, violence and aggression Mersey Care NHS Trust project, in partnership with Advancing Quality Alliance	11	Improving prescribing safety in general practices led by Lincolnshire Community Health Services NHS Trust	21	Using traffic icons to manage acute deterioration of patients Betsi Cadwaladr University Health Board
5	Improving safety across the continuum of care for frail older people NHS Borders, in partnership with Healthcare Improvement Scotland	12	Obtaining patient feedback on the safety of care led by Bradford Teaching Hospitals NHS Foundation Trust	22	Reducing errors on surgical wards Royal College of Surgeons of Edinburgh
6	Whole system approach to using data to improve safety in acute mental health services NHS Tayside, in partnership with Healthcare Improvement Scotland	13	Using clinical huddles in paediatric settings led by Royal College of Paediatrics and Child Health	23	Checklist and IT innovation to improve emergency care University Hospitals Bristol NHS Foundation Trust
7	Developing measures to improve ambulance service safety North West Ambulance Service NHS Trust, in partnership with Advancing Quality Alliance	14	Reducing the use of physical restraint led by University of Central Lancashire	24	Improving tracheostomy care University Hospital of South Manchester
		15	Reducing sepsis led by Northumbria Healthcare NHS Foundation Trust	25	Improving surgical outcomes through nurse-led protocols York Teaching Hospital, in partnership with Edwards Lifesciences
		16	A safety checklist for frail older people led by British Geriatrics Society	26	Improving pressure damage detection in the community Peninsula Community Health
		17	Addressing safety hazards in mental health care led by Hertfordshire Partnership NHS Foundation Trust	27	Maternal risk assessment: management NHS Borders